SUBJECT: NOAA Volunteer Program Operational Guidance

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon Release

EXPIRATION DATE: Effective until canceled or superseded

SUPERSEDES: Not Applicable

PURPOSE: The purpose of this bulletin is to outline the process and requirements related to managing volunteers within the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), specifically the NOAA Student Volunteer Program, and other individual and group volunteers.

COVERAGE: This guidance applies to all NOAA organizational units. Specifically, all managers/supervisors utilizing persons performing volunteer services for the conduct of their programs.

- Guest Workers, Research Associates, Guest Researchers, Visiting Scientists, and Guest Scientists. In compliance with Department Administrative Order 202-311, Voluntary and Uncompensated Services, these individuals are not volunteers; and therefore, are not covered by this guidance.

BACKGROUND:
- The Civil Service Reform Act of 1978, Title III – Staffing, Section 301, Voluntary Service, authorized Federal agencies to establish programs designed to provide educationally related work assignments for students; and
- Title 16, United States Code (USC) – Conservation, Chapter 9, Fish and Wildlife Service, Section 742f(c)(1), Volunteer Services, authorized the Secretary of Commerce to use volunteers to provide assistance to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) in the conduct of its programs.

OVERVIEW: NOAA’s Volunteer Program is an essential component of the Agency’s mission. The many thousands of hours that uncompensated individuals donate each year, make it possible to complete unfunded work that would otherwise not be done. The value of time and expertise contributed by individuals, groups, and students is recognized and appreciated. Volunteers can help achieve Agency goals within every program at every administrative level.

DEFINITIONS: The following terms are used in this bulletin.

- Other Volunteer Service. Volunteer service performed by individuals and groups authorized by 16 USC, Chapter 9, Section 742(c)(1), Volunteer Services. Other volunteer service is service provided by any person or groups of persons on their own initiative without a formal request from the United States Government through an authorized appointing officer. This service is to be uncompensated and will not be used to displace any employee or to staff a position which is a normal part of the Agency’s work force.

- Student. An individual who is enrolled not less than half-time in a high school, trade school, technical or vocational institute, junior college, college, university or other accredited educational institution. An individual who is a student is deemed not to have ceased to be a student during an interim between school years, if the interim is not more than 5 months; and if such individual shows to the satisfaction of the Agency that the individual has a bona fide intention of continuing to pursue a course of study or training in the same or different educational institution during the school semester (or other period into which the school year is divided) immediately after the interim.

- Student Volunteer Service. Service performed under 5 USC 3111(b)(1)(2), Acceptance of Volunteer Service, and Part 308, Volunteer Service. Student volunteer service is limited to services performed by a student, with the permission of the institution at which the student is enrolled, as part of NOAA’s Student Volunteer Program, which was established for the purpose of providing educational experience and credit for the students. This service is to be uncompensated and will not be used to displace any employee or to staff a position which is a normal part of the Agency’s work force.

POLICY: It is NOAA’s policy to recruit, train, and accept volunteers to provide assistance in a variety of activities in the conduct of its programs. Volunteer service is limited to personal services received from individuals or groups without compensation.

MANDATORY PROVISIONS: Volunteers are accepted without regard to race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, affiliation, religion, disability, or any other non-merit factor.

a. Other Volunteer Service – Volunteer Application. All potential volunteers must complete and submit a completed Optional Form (OF) 301-14, Volunteer Service Application - Natural and Cultural Resources. The Volunteer Application for Natural Resources records information on a potential volunteer’s background and areas of interest. The manager/supervisory should use this form to screen applicants for interviews and to develop a list of potential volunteers for future needs. All volunteers must attach their resume to the completed volunteer application.

b. Other Volunteer Service – Volunteer Service Agreement. The individual volunteer and the designated volunteer supervisor must sign the completed OF301A-14a, Volunteer Service Agreement - Natural and Cultural Resources. A group leader may complete a single agreement for a volunteer group.

c. Student Volunteer Agreement. The student volunteer, the designated educational institution official, the manager/supervisor of the volunteer, and the Business Advisor must sign the agreement. A copy of the Student Volunteer Agreement is attached to this guidance.

The agreement must be signed before initiating projects, even for projects of only a few hours duration.

The agreement may be modified at any time by mutual consent. However, the agreement must accurately reflect the volunteer’s duties at all times. This is important in case of questions concerning injuries or liabilities. A copy of the agreement, with any revisions or amendments, must be given to the volunteer. A copy of the Volunteer Services Agreement must be on file in the Line/Staff Office and in the volunteer’s supervisor’s office. The supervisor must provide a copy of the agreement to his/her designated Business Advisor.

All volunteers must complete and submit the Volunteer Services Application Form (for Other Volunteer Service only) and the Volunteer Services Agreement. The agreement is the volunteer’s contract with the NOAA. The agreement is very important because it contains the following elements:

- A description of the work that is to be accomplished. Duties must be summarized in a written description spelling out assignments and responsibilities.
- The contact information for individuals who should be notified in case of an emergency.
- Assurance that the volunteer is protected from tort claims and is eligible for compensation for injuries incurred while performing volunteer duties, this is the same coverage provided to NOAA employees.

d. Age Limitation. Volunteers should be at least age 16 or in the tenth grade or at an equivalent level of schooling. In situations deemed appropriate and approved by the Director, Office of Human Capital Services (OHCS), students younger than 16 or at a level of schooling below the tenth grade or equivalent may serve.

Under no circumstances, however, may a student younger than 14 serves, regardless of grade in school, without prior approval of the Department’s Director for Human Resources Management (OARM). Students who are between grades, as for example, during the summer, are considered to be in the grade or class in which they will next be enrolled.

In compliance with Title 29, Subtitle B, Chapter V, Subchapter A, Part 570, Child Labor Regulations, Orders, and Statements of Interpretation, managers/supervisors must comply with appropriate Federal and State laws and standards when using the services of minors.
e. Written Permission. Written permission must be obtained of a parent/guardian for all volunteers under the age of 18.

f. Student Volunteers – Non-Citizens. Non-citizens cannot serve as student volunteers.

g. Other Volunteer Service – Non-Citizens. Individuals who are not U.S. citizens, but who reside in the U.S., may volunteer:

   - If they are lawful permanent residents; or
   - If they are non-immigrant aliens with F-1 or J-1 visa status, who are bona fide students residing in the U.S. solely to pursue a course of study at a recognized, approved institution of education.
   - Foreign students may volunteer with a Federal natural resource agency if they have successfully received permission to engage in Optional Practical Training (OPT), Curricular Practical Training (CPT) or Academic Training (AT).
   - For more information and instructions, students should consult the international student advisor at their university. Documentation to verify volunteer placement must be submitted with the student’s application for OPT, CPT or AT.
   - F-1 student visa holders may be required to submit applications for off-campus training and work to the international student advisor and United States Citizen and Immigration Services (USCIS) several months in advance of the proposed start date of the volunteer service.
   - J-1 student visa holders may participate in academic training with the approval of their academic advisor and the J-1 responsible officer at educational institution.

b. Assessing Potentially Dangerous Volunteer Assignments. Volunteer assignments must be evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine any potential safety hazards.

Special care must be exercised when using volunteers under 18 years of age. deciding if a volunteer will travel on official duty.

REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES: The volunteer’s manager/supervisor is responsible for making the decision whether or not to reimburse incidental expenses, such as travel, meals, subsistence, etc. Volunteers may be reimbursed for incidental expenses regardless of the volunteer’s place of residence. For example: a staff meeting where there are more than two people in attendance, volunteer award dinner, or any other public meeting where recognition of the volunteer service is appropriate and/or meaningful to the volunteer. Public presentation to recognize the volunteer in front of others and acts to reinforce the sincerity of our desire to share the volunteer’s achievement with others.

DOCUMENTATION OF VOLUNTEER SERVICE: Volunteers do not receive Federal appointments, so their service is not reported. An SF 50 cannot be used to document volunteer service.

• Position Title;
• NOAA Organizational Unit and duty location; and
• Number of days and number of hours on duty.

In addition, the following language: “Volunteer service is not creditable for leave or any other employee benefits” must be included as written notice to the volunteer.

• Total hours or days worked; and MAINTENANCE AND DISPOSITION OF VOLUNTEER RECORDS: Copies of volunteer records should be kept on file in the supervisor’s and the Line/Staff office for three (3) years after termination/completion of the volunteer’s service.

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS. Line/Staff Offices utilizing volunteer services must submit a volunteer service report to their Business Advisor. The report is due October 31 of each year; and must contain:

• The number and age distribution of volunteers;
• The number of hours contributed, the kinds of activities conducted by volunteers; and
